

---

WONDEROPOLIS INQUIRY PROJECT

by Colton & Tim

---

How Did Babe Ruth Become Famous?

Have you ever wondered...

- How did Babe Ruth become famous?
- What did Babe Ruth do outside of baseball?
- What were Babe Ruth's accomplishments?

Did you know?

George Herman Ruth Jr. Starting pitcher. National Baseball Hall of Fame. First player to hit 60 home runs in one season. Seven-time world champion. These are a bunch of reasons how George Herman Ruth became famous.

As a kid he got into a lot of trouble he stole apples. Also His parents sent him to an all boys school. Second when he was at the all boys school he learned how to play baseball. The school was called St. Mary's industrial school for boys. Babe Ruth was on tv and radio, and was one out of eight only Two survived.

Babe Ruth got many accomplishments. In 1923 he got to be the American League mvp. Then he was on the all star team through 1933-34. Another accomplishment was he was voted for the Hall of Fame in 1936. In 1999 he was the Athlete of the Century. Babe Ruth is the best of all time. His Batting Average is .342. He got 714 career home runs. That's some of the accomplishments in Babe Ruth's life.

Babe Ruth became famous because of all of these reasons. Athlete of the century. voted into Hall of Fame. .342 batting average. Major league baseball's idol. George Herman Ruth Jr.

Wonder words to know and use:

- tv
- radio
- baseball
- Babe Ruth
- accomplishments
- athlete

- home runs